

Part-Time Faculty Teaching Opportunities

Lander University is hiring part-time faculty in many disciplines taught at the university. If you have a master's degree including 18 graduate hours in a discipline, experience using a Learning Management System (LMS), and interest in teaching a class at the college level, we would like to explore this possibility with you. To indicate your interest, please submit a letter of application, your vita, and unofficial transcripts for all degrees received to Melissa Thompson at mthompson@lander.edu. (mail to: mthompson@lander.edu)

Lander University is a tobacco-free campus. All final candidates are subject to successfully completing background requirements.

Lander University is committed to equal opportunity employment and being an employer of choice. Lander believes that corresponding differences within the faculty and staff, whether based on ethnicity, race, gender, religion, age, or other experiences, are tremendous assets to the role of Lander as an educational institution and within the community, region, and state. Moreover, Lander is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. As a result, it is the policy and commitment of Lander that it will not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or other protected characteristics.
