

Graduate Certificate, All-Hazard Emergency Management

In addition to the master's degree, Lander University also offers a Graduate Certificate that requires 15 credit hours made up of 4 core classes (chosen from 6 options) and 1 elective course (chosen from 7 elective courses or from an additional core course).

	Credit Hours
Core Classes: Choose 4 courses from those below:
EMGT 500: Fundamentals of Emergency Management	3
EMGT 510: Preparedness and Mitigation	3
EMGT 520: Response and Recovery	3
EMGT 530: Continuity of Government	3
EMGT 630: Business and Economic Continuity	3
EMGT 635: Mental Health and First Responders	3
Electives: Choose 1 course from those below:
EMGT 610: Technology for Emergency Management	3
EMGT 620: Crisis Communication	3
EMGT 625: Crisis Leadership	3
EMGT 640: Emergency Management Law	3
EMGT 670: Hurricane and Weather	3
EMGT 675: Nuclear Incident Management	3
EMGT 685: Special Topics in Emergency Management	3
TOTAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS	15

Students who earn this certificate may continue and complete Lander's Master of Science in Emergency Management degree.