
Lander University SMART Classroom Preparations for Fall 2020

To describe and classify classrooms on Lander University's campus, technology-enabled classrooms have been categorized into three broad categories: standard classrooms, laptop-ready classrooms, and special use classrooms. A brief description of each classroom type and categorized list are included in this document.

Standard Classrooms:

Our standard classrooms are prepared to facilitate lecture capture using Echo360 Universal Capture or Blackboard Collaborate. These classrooms can also be used to facilitate Microsoft Teams Meetings. Each classroom is outfitted with:

- Computer with Echo360 Universal Capture, Firefox, HoverCamFlex11, and Microsoft Teams Software Installed.
- Webcam with integrated microphone.
- Projector and screen or display.
- Connectivity for Laptop or another device via HDMI (VGA or DP via adapter).
- Hovercam Ultra Webcam/Document Camera.
- Integrated Control (Note that where possible, the control system is configured to automatically power on the projector and select the in-room computer as the active display.).

Laptop-Ready Classrooms:

The following classroom/lab spaces are prepared to facilitate lecture capture using Echo360 or Blackboard Collaborate from a faculty Laptop. These classrooms can also be used to facilitate Microsoft Teams Meetings. Each classroom is outfitted with:

- Simplified control system.
- Connections for Laptop Computer with HDMI (DP or VGA with Adapter).
- Projector or digital display.

Instructor will need to bring:

- Laptop with installed software (Echo360 Universal Capture, Firefox, and/or Microsoft Teams Software).

Please note:

- Where requested, these classrooms are outfitted with a webcam with integrated microphone on a tripod or a Hovercam Ultra Webcam/Document Camera. If the classroom/lab that you are teaching in does not have a webcam and you would like one, please send a request to help@lander.edu.

Special Use Lab Classroom:

Lab Spaces and Classrooms described as Special Use Labs are uniquely configured to meet the needs of the College and Department they serve. Equipment is specified with input from academic stakeholders.

A significant number of these spaces are new requests for fall 2020. ITS has been collaborating with the physical plant to install the necessary infrastructure and equipment as defined with input from academic stakeholders. Every effort is being made to complete the necessary upgrades in time for the start of the fall semester on August 17, 2020. Spaces marked operational are ready to be used. This list will be updated regularly to reflect changes.
